

Bylaws of

The Korean American University Professors Association (KAUPA)

(Effective January 1, 1987)
(Amended October 20, 1988)
(Amended *, 2011)

Article I - Name

The name of this association is the Korean American University Professors Association (hereafter referred to as KAUPA or the Association).

Article II - Membership

- II.1. Regular membership in the Association is open to all those who hold academic positions (including emeritus) in universities or colleges in the United States of America or Canada.
- II.2. Associate membership in the Association is open to those persons who support the objectives and activities of the Association and the activities of the Association. Associate members shall have the same rights and privileges as the regular members except for voting right and right to be nominated for any of the four officers: President, First Vice President (President-to-Be), Second Vice President and Secretary General.
- II.3. All regular and associate members shall pay membership dues. The amount of dues shall be decided by the Executive Committee. All regular members who have paid their dues are eligible to vote.

Article III - Objectives

KAUPA is an academic, educational, non-profit and non-political organization.

The objectives of the Association are:

- III.1. To encourage and facilitate academic research and scholarly cooperation among members, especially research on related issues on Korea and North America. .

III.2. To facilitate academic and social exchanges of scholars between North America and Korea.

III.3. To sponsor programs for its members and Korean Americans.

Article IV - Activities

Activities of KAUPA may include:

IV.1. To hold academic conferences or seminars.

IV.2. To publish academic journals, newsletters and membership directories.

IV.3. To hold joint conferences or seminars with other academic, civic, or governmental organizations.

IV.4. To sponsor cultural or educational programs for Korean Americans and Koreans as well as its members.

IV.5. To sponsor other programs in accommodation with the objectives of the Association.

IV.6. KAUPA shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 or the corresponding provision of any future U.S. Internal Revenue Law.

Article V - Organization

V.1. Board of Directors

- A. The Board of Directors (The Board) is the ultimate governing body of KAUPA and shall consist of at least five members.
- B. The members of the Board are elected by the majority vote of the existing Board.
- C. The term of the members is two years and may be renewed.
- D. The Board will select the Chairperson. The Chairperson's term is two years and may be renewed.
- E. The President and the First Vice President of KAUPA are ex officio members of the Board.
- F. The Board shall hold a regular meeting once a year. The decision of the Board will be made by the majority vote of the present.

- G. The Board shall approve the Annual Budget and the Special Budget submitted by the Executive Committee.
- H. The Board shall deal with major policy matters but not the routine management.

V.2. Nomination Committee

- A. The Chairperson of the Board, President, and the First Vice President and one member-at-large will serve as the Nomination Committee.
- B. The Nomination Committee nominates candidates for the members of the Board and the Executive Committee.

V.3. Executive Committee

- A. The Executive Committee (EC) shall consist of President, Vice Presidents, Secretary General, and Treasurer.
- B. The members of the EC are nominated by the Nomination Committee and are elected by the General Assembly of KAUPA.
- C. The terms of the EC are two years and may be renewed.
- D. EC will plan and execute the KAUPA activities.
- E. The President is the official representative and the chief executive officer of KAUPA, who is in charge of all activities of KAUPA.
- F. Vice Presidents shall assist the President, and when the President is absent or incapacitated, the First Vice President shall assume the responsibilities of the President.
- G. The Secretary General is the chief administrative officer of KAUPA, and shall be responsible for the administrative support for the KAUPA activities.
- H. The Treasurer shall manage the funds of KAUPA, and prepare financial statements and report them to the President and the Board.

V.4. General Assembly

- A. All due-paying members of the Association shall constitute the General Assembly.
- B. The General Assembly shall confirm the membership of the Board and the Executive Committee by the majority vote.

Article VII - Revision

- VII.I. The constitution may be revised by the General Assembly with a two-thirds majority vote of all ballots cast.

VII.2. Petition for a revision of the constitution can be made to the President, by 20 percent or more of the members of the General Assembly, or by a decision of the Executive Committee.

VII.3. The President shall conduct a ballot of all members with voting right within two weeks of receiving a petition for revision of the constitution. The ballot, with the statement of the petition, shall be forwarded to each member with the voting right. The completed ballot shall be returned to the President within four weeks after its mailing. The results of the ballots shall be announced within a week after the close of the ballots.

Article VIII - Provisos

VIII.1. The constitution of KAUPA shall be effective immediately upon its approval

VIII.2. In the event of dissolution, the residual assets of KAUPA will be turned over to one or more organizations which themselves are exempt as organizations described in Section 501 (c) (3) and 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 or corresponding sections.